

Boy Scout Troop 188
Colorado Renaissance Festival
July 10, 2004 (7:30am-9:30pm)
Information and Permission Form

As part of Troop 188's medieval study program, the troop is taking a day trip to Larkspur Colorado to attend the Colorado Renaissance Festival. More Information about the Renaissance Festival can be found at the following link: <http://www.coloradorennaissance.com>.

The Troop will leave the Linton Parking lot at 7:30am on Saturday, July 10th, and return later that evening at approximately 9:30pm.

The tickets cost $15.95 for those over 12 and $8.00 for those 12 and under. Discount tickets are available and King Soopers and it is suggested that they be purchased in advance. The scouts will also be responsible to pay for their own lunch and dinner. They will also have to pay for any purchases that they might wish to make. Finally, it is also customary to tip the actors at the Festival. As a result, it is suggested that in addition the entrance fee, the scouts bring approximately $30 dollars to pay for these other expenses.

In addition to money, please bring a water bottle, sunscreen, rain gear and a camera. These can all be carried in a daypack.

If you have any questions you may contact Robert Donahue at 495-9875.
