Fellow crew,

Just one more month to go. I'd like to have an all-sailers meeting on Tuesday night (7/1) after the Troop meeting to discuss final planning. Here are some thoughts for the meeting:

- 1 Payment: We fell a bit short of our planned 30 sailers; our final number is 26. The bad news on that is I need to increase the total amount due $50 (new total is $850) to cover the shortfall on the boat rental. Contact me if that poses any major concerns. Since there are so many combinations of travel plans, bring your checkbook Tuesday and see me for your final amount.
- 1 Airport Transport: We need to line up the drivers for the trip to and from DIA; the more drivers who aren't going on the trip, the more we can save in parking fees at the airport. The assumption is that Zimmer's are providing their own transportation, the Lancasters are arranging their own transportation to/from DIA, and the Marcy's is a party of 4. Going down we will have 26 people (incl Lancaster's) and returning we will have 23 people. If you have another adult in your family willing to be the airport taxi, please let us know that and how many people your vehicle can transport.
- 1 Medical Forms: If you don't have your medical forms filled out by your doctor yet, that's ok. If you don't have an appointment yet, you are behind and need to get on it! I need these from everyone going on the trip.
- 1 Packing and Sunscreen: The "what to bring" information is on the troop web site ,but start planning your sunscreen purchases. It's a bad feeling to have over-exposure to the sun and still having several days to go on a trip. I'll be giving daily reminders on the trip to put it on. Personally, I hate the stuff, but if I can stand it so can you.
- 1 Food: Here are our planned menus with LAMI, in case you're wondering what we'll be eating on the boat:

Let me know if there are any food allergies we need to consider, like peanuts (Day 1 lunch). Saturday lunch and dinner will most likely be at the airport or en-route to our destination, as well as Friday night dinner. Bring some money for those.

Best Regards,
